

Budget Plan Facts

- A Budget Plan is a proven shield against price fluctuations – your energy expenses are under control, even if temperatures drop or fuel prices rise.
- Your costs are spread over equal monthly payments rather than paying the majority of your fuel costs during the winter months (see chart inside).
- Your fuel bills won't bunch up at the same time you're paying off holiday bills and other winter expenses.
- Budget Plan enrollment is FREE – so there's no way you can lose!

Budget Plans

Enroll in our Budget Plan and you'll sleep like a baby.

Are you tired of watching your fuel payments turn unmanageable every winter? Have you been juggling your expenses to squeeze your entire annual heating cost into just a few short months?

Take control over your budget and say goodbye to unexpected high energy bills with our convenient Budget Plan! When you enroll in our Budget Plan, we'll examine your past usage to forecast next year's fuel costs. Then, we simply divide that amount into equal monthly payments.

With a Budget Plan, your fuel costs are spread over equal monthly payments, rather than paying a majority of your fuel costs during the winter months. You'll have the peace of mind and convenience of knowing exactly what you'll pay every month. Without a budget plan, your monthly bills can pile up, especially during the holidays when it's least convenient.

The days of re-structuring your household budget to accommodate seasonal energy bills will be over!

At the end of the budget season, we'll either credit your account for the following year or bill you for the remaining balance due. Our Budget Plan is free of charge – there's absolutely no cost to join.

Just because the heating season runs from November to March doesn't mean you have to pay all your heating costs then. With our Budget Plan, your costs will be the same – month after month – and your budget will be under control.

We're doing everything possible to help you manage your energy costs. Enroll in our budget plan today! It's easy ... just call our office and speak with a Budget Plan specialist who will be happy to answer any questions you may have.
